

Strength, support, and community
for people living with bleeding disorders

Better Together

The bleeding disorders community is broad and diverse, encompassing a wide range of patients and disease states, caregivers, families, friends, professionals, and advocacy organizations. What binds us all together is a shared need for lifelong care, compassionate understanding, accurate information we can trust, and connection with others who walk in our shoes. Octapharma's Factor My Way is designed to answer those needs.

Whoever you are, wherever you live, whatever brings you into the hemophilia A or VWD communities, and however you are managing your disease, Factor My Way is here for you.

Created for You

We spoke with you and we listened. The insights we gathered from people with hemophilia A and von Willebrand disease, as well as from those who care for them, form the foundation of our complimentary patient support program, Factor My Way.

Built around your needs, the program includes resources for patients and caregivers, support services for those navigating care, reliable educational materials, and uplifting community connection.
